

CHAPTER III. GENERAL POLICIES

3.00 INTRODUCTION

General Policies are those that apply to the overall operation of the District and do not specifically fall into another category.

3.01 CODE OF CONDUCT

3.01.1 Introduction. The purpose of this policy is to establish a Code of Conduct to better manage the Parks and Recreation system. The Code of Conduct prohibits specified conduct to ensure that all users may have the opportunity to enjoy the amenities the parks system offers

3.01.2 Scope of the Policy. These rules apply only on property and facilities under the jurisdiction or management of the South Whidbey Parks and Recreation District and do not provide for a criminal or civil penalty. However, a person who violates these rules may have his or her permission to remain in the park withdrawn, and/or the person may be issued a Parks Notice of Exclusion. In addition, if the violation of a specific rule would constitute a violation of civil or criminal law, the authorities may be notified and the appropriate civil or criminal penalty may be imposed.

3.01.3 Not applicable to Employees. This policy does not apply to District Employees when they are actively in the course of performing the duties of their job. The policy manual "Chapter IV.-Personnel" deals with the administration of the District's employees in accordance with all local state and federal laws.

3.01.4 Code of Conduct. In addition to violating applicable law, it is also a violation of this administrative rule to engage in any conduct that would constitute a criminal or civil violation of any applicable laws, including any provision of the Island County Code, or any provision of the Revised Code of Washington (RCW).

3.01.5 Violations of Rules. The following conduct is also expressly prohibited by this administrative rule.

- a) Camping in any park, unless specifically approved by the Director;
- b) Conduct that unreasonably deprives others of their use or enjoyment of the park or park facility;
- c) Disrupting South Whidbey Parks and Recreation District business, events, or other sponsored activities;
- d) Disposing of unwanted items anywhere other than in a designated trash or recycling receptacle, dumping, or creating unsanitary conditions or health hazards on park property that violate public health rules of Island County (i.e. littering) and/or dumping garbage or refuse generated outside of District property in a receptacle or dumpster within District property;
- e) Violation of the laws requiring that dogs or other pets be leashed and licensed and that pet owners properly dispose of any of their pet's feces in the park;
- f) Possession of glass containers at athletic fields, beaches or children's playgrounds;

- g) Posting of signs, posters, or notices in any park, unless otherwise permitted by the Director;
- h) Behavior that unreasonably interferes with the use of a restroom by park visitors or users of park facilities;
- i) Smoking within 25 feet of any park building entrance;
- j) Distribution of handbills, circulars, or signs in any park in any manner that interferes with normal passage of people or vehicles, unless otherwise permitted by the Director;
- k) Leaving packages, backpacks, luggage, or other personal items unattended;
- l) Urinating or defecating, except in designated restroom fixtures;
- m) Possession of liquor, and/or cannabis/marijuana on District property and/or being under the influence of liquor, and/or cannabis/marijuana on District property;
- n) Blocking entrances, exits, fire exits, handicap access areas, public walkways, or roadways, or obstructing pedestrian traffic or otherwise interfering with the provision of services or the use of park property unless permitted by the Director;
- o) Conduct that creates an unreasonable and substantial risk of harm to any person or property (i.e. dangerous activity);
- p) Presence in a park or area within a park when the park or area within the park is not open to the public without prior written approval of the District Director;
- q) Igniting or maintaining a fire or use of flammable liquids, except in designated barbecues, grills, and fire rings;
- r) Using park property without a permit for a use that requires a permit or requires District services (for example, use of amplified sound without a permit);
- s) Removing, destroying, or mutilating, or any way altering lawn, shrubs, plants, flowers, sand, soil, or a habitat area without proper authorization;
- t) Capturing, annoying, or disturbing any animal, wildlife, waterfowl, etc.;
- u) Driving a motor vehicle anywhere in a park except on public roadways and parking lots;
- v) Abusive or harassing behavior, including obscene language or gestures including such behavior directed at a Park District employee or official;
- w) Sale, possession, use, or discharge of any fireworks or pyrotechnics special effects, except where permissible by Island County Code and with prior written approval of the District Director;
- x) Possession of explosives, acid, or any other article or material capable of causing serious harm to others;
- y) Illegal gambling;
- z) Possession, sale, or use of illegal drugs and/or being under the influence of illegal drugs on District property;
- aa) Defacing, destroying, or otherwise vandalizing park property, including buildings, fixtures, grounds, signs, or other structures;
- bb) Sexual misconduct, such as indecent exposure, offensive touching, sexual acts, or prostitution;
- cc) Assault or fighting;
- dd) Firearms violations under RCW Chapter 9.41

3.01.6 Posted Rules. It is a violation of the Code of Conduct to fail to comply with a rule posted on SWPRD signage.

3.01.7 Park District Staff Direction. It is a violation of the Code of Conduct to fail to comply with a directive issued by an authorized Parks and Recreation District employee or agent.

3.01.8 Enforcement

3.01.8.1 Violations of Law. Conduct that would constitute a violation of civil or criminal law may result in: 1) citation or arrest as provided under applicable law; 2) issuance of a Parks Exclusion Notice; and/or, 3) an authorized District employee's notification to a person that his or her permission to remain on the premises has been withdrawn for up to 24 hours.

3.01.8.2 Violations of these Rules. Conduct that would not constitute a violation of civil or criminal law, but that does violate these administrative rules, may result in: 1) issuance of a Parks Exclusion Notice; and/or, 2) an authorized District employee's notification to a person that his or her permission to remain on the premises has been withdrawn for up to 24 hours.

3.01.8.3 Violation of a Lawful and Authorized Directive. A violation of or failure to comply with a directive issued by an authorized District employee or agent may result in: 1) issuance of a Parks Exclusion Notice; and/or, 2) an authorized District employee's notification to a person that his or her permission to remain on the premises has been withdrawn for up to 24 hours.

3.01.8.4 Violations resulting in damage to property. Conduct or Violations that result in damage to District property or District managed property may require the violator to reimburse the Park District for any cost of repairs associated with the violation, prior to any use restriction imposed by any other portion of the code of conduct being lifted, regardless of timeframe. This would include the cost of any materials needed to effect repairs and any staff time expended in the course of repairs.

3.01.8.5 Criminal Trespass. Entering or remaining in an area not open to the public, violating a Parks Notice of Exclusion, or remaining on the premises after being notified that permission to remain has been withdrawn, may subject the violator to arrest and prosecution for criminal trespass.

3.01.8.6 Parks Exclusion Notices. Parks Exclusion Notices shall be issued as provided in the applicable Code of Conduct Length of Exclusion Guidelines (Section 3.01.7.7). Multiple Notices of Exclusion for the same incident must be served consecutively – not concurrently.
